PASTORAL CARE
If you or someone you know has a pastoral care need, please contact Joyce Fletcher at joycefletcher@rocketmail.com or at 630-204-3175. St. Mark's has trained chaplains who will contact you. Names are always welcome to be added to the church prayer list.
THE LITURGY OF THE PALMS  BCP pg. 270

Officiant  Blessed is the King who comes in the name of the Lord:
People    Peace in heaven and glory in the highest.
Officiant  Let us pray.

Assist us mercifully with your help, O Lord God of our salvation, that we may enter with joy upon the contemplation of those mighty acts, whereby you have given us life and immortality; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Officiant  The Lord be with you.
People    And also with you.
Officiant  Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People    It is right to give him thanks and praise.

The people raise their Branches as the Officiant says

It is right to praise you, Almighty God, for the acts of love by which you have redeemed us through your Son Jesus Christ our Lord. On this day he entered the holy city of Jerusalem in triumph, and was proclaimed as King of kings by those who spread their garments and branches of palm along his way. Let these branches be for us signs of his victory, and grant that we who bear them in his name may ever hail him as our King, and follow him in the way that leads to eternal life; who lives and reigns in glory with you and the Holy Spirit, now and for ever. Amen.

THE BLESSING OF THE HOME

In these times of sickness and uncertainty as we desire to show our love of God and our neighbor, we gather in a way that is not our usual way, but we celebrate the way in which we gather together in our homes. We recognize the sanctity of our homes and the small church that gathers in each home, as we live, move, and have our being together.

Please stand and turn toward or remain in your living room

Presider  Oh, how good and pleasant it is, when God’s people live together in unity!

Officiant  Above everything, love one another earnestly:
People    For love covers many sins.
Presider
Give your blessing, Lord, to all who share this room, that they may be knit together in fellowship here on earth, and joined with the communion of your saints in heaven; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Please turn toward the place where you study or do your work

Presider
Teach us, O Lord, where wisdom is to be found, and show us the place of understanding.

Officiant  Seek the Lord your God, and you will find him:
People    Search for him with all your heart and with all your soul.

Presider
O God of truth, eternal ground of all that is, beyond space and time yet within them, transcending all things yet pervading them: Show yourself to us, for we go about in ignorance; reveal yourself to us, for it is you that we seek, O Triune God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Amen.

Please turn toward your bedroom

Presider
Guide us waking, O Lord, and guard us sleeping, that awake we may watch with Christ, and asleep we may rest in peace.

Officiant  I lie down and go to sleep:
People    I wake again, because the Lord sustains me.

Presider
O God of life and love, the true rest of your people: Sanctify to your servants their hours of rest and refreshment, their sleeping and their waking; and grant that, strengthened by the indwelling of the Holy Spirit, they may rise to serve you all the days of their life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
Please turn toward your kitchen.

Presider
You shall eat in plenty and be satisfied, and praise the Name of the Lord your God, who has dealt wondrously with you.

Officiant The eyes of all wait upon you, O Lord:
People And you give them their food in due season.

Presider
O Lord our God, you supply every need of ours according to your great riches: Bless the hands that work in this place, and give us grateful hearts for daily bread; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

And now as we give thanks for those under our roof,

Presider
Almighty and everlasting God, grant to this home the grace of your presence, that you may be known to be the inhabitant of this dwelling, and the defender of this household; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who with you and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Acclamation for Palm Sunday

Officiant Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
People Hosanna in the highest.
THE ENTRANCE RITE

Opening Hymn

Hymn 154

ALL GLORY LAUD AND HONOR | Valet will ich der geben

Refrain

All glory, laud, and honor to thee, Redeemer, King!

to whom the lips of children made sweet hosannas ring.

1 Thou art the King of Israel, thou David’s royal Son,
2 The company of angels is praising thee on high;
3 The people of the Hebrews with palms before thee went;
4 To thee before thy passion they sang their hymns of praise;
5 Thou didst accept their praises; accept the prayers we bring,

Repeat Refrain

1 who in the Lord’s Name comest, the King and Blessed One.
2 and we with all creation in chorus make reply.
3 our praise and prayers and anthems before thee we present.
4 to thee, now high exalted, our melody we raise.
5 who in all good delight, thou good and gracious King.

The stanzas may be sung by choir alone or alternately by contrasted groups; all sing the refrain.

Words: Theodulph of Orleans (d. 821); tr. John Mason Neale (1818-1866), alt.
Music: Valet will ich dir geben, melody Melchior Teschner (1584-1635), alt.; harm. William Henry Monk (1823-1889)
THE LITURGY of THE WORD

Collect for the Day

Officiant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Officiant Let us pray.

Almighty and everliving God, in your tender love for the human race you sent your Son our Savior Jesus Christ to take upon him our nature, and to suffer death upon the cross, giving us the example of his great humility: Mercifully grant that we may walk in the way of his suffering, and also share in his resurrection; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

THE LESSONS

The First Lesson

Isaiah 50:4-9a

The Lord God has given me the tongue of a teacher, that I may know how to sustain the weary with a word. Morning by morning he wakens--wakens my ear to listen as those who are taught. The Lord God has opened my ear, and I was not rebellious, I did not turn backward. I gave my back to those who struck me, and my cheeks to those who pulled out the beard; I did not hide my face from insult and spitting.

The Lord God helps me; therefore I have not been disgraced; therefore I have set my face like flint, and I know that I shall not be put to shame; he who vindicates me is near. Who will contend with me? Let us stand up together. Who are my adversaries? Let them confront me. It is the Lord God who helps me; who will declare me guilty?

People Thanks be to God.

The Response Psalm 31:9-16

9. Have mercy on me, O LORD, for I am in trouble; *
   my eye is consumed with sorrow,
   and also my throat and my belly.
10. For my life is wasted with grief, and my years with sighing; *
    my strength fails me because of affliction,
    and my bones are consumed.
11. I have become a reproach to all my enemies and even to my neighbors, a dismay to those of my acquaintance; *
    when they see me in the street they avoid me.
12. I am forgotten like a dead man, out of mind; *
    I am as useless as a broken pot.
13. For I have heard the whispering of the crowd; fear is all around; *
    they put their heads together against me; they plot to take my life.
14. But as for me, I have trusted in you, O LORD. *
    I have said, "You are my God.
15. My times are in your hand; *
    rescue me from the hand of my enemies, and from those who persecute me.
16. Make your face to shine upon your servant, * and in your loving-kindness save me."

The Epistle

Philippians 2:5-11

Let the same mind be in you that was in Christ Jesus, who, though he was in the form of God, did not regard equality with God as something to be exploited, but emptied himself, taking the form of a slave, being born in human likeness. And being found in human form, he humbled himself and became obedient to the point of death— even death on a cross.

Therefore God also highly exalted him and gave him the name that is above every name, so that at the name of Jesus every knee should bend, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

The Holy Gospel

Matthew 21:1-11

Reader The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

When Jesus and his disciples had come near Jerusalem and had reached Bethphage, at the Mount of Olives, Jesus sent two disciples, saying to them, "Go into the village ahead of you, and immediately you will find a donkey tied, and a colt with her; untie them and bring them to me. If anyone says anything to you, just say this, 'The Lord needs them.' And he will send them immediately." This took place to fulfill what had been spoken through the prophet, saying,

"Tell the daughter of Zion,
Look, your king is coming to you,
humble, and mounted on a donkey,
and on a colt, the foal of a donkey."

The disciples went and did as Jesus had directed them; they brought the donkey and the colt, and put their cloaks on them, and he sat on them. A very large crowd spread their cloaks on the road, and others cut branches from the trees and spread them on the road. The crowds that went ahead of him and that followed were shouting,

"Hosanna to the Son of David!
Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord!
Hosanna in the highest heaven!"

When he entered Jerusalem, the whole city was in turmoil, asking, "Who is this?" The crowds were saying, "This is the prophet Jesus from Nazareth in Galilee."

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Sermon

THE PRAYERS

The Nicene Creed

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.
We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People
Form II; BCP 385

• In the course of the silence after each bidding, the People offer their own prayers, either silently or aloud.

I ask your prayers for God's people throughout the world; for this gathering; and for all ministers and people.
Pray for the Church.

Silence

I ask your prayers for peace; for goodwill among nations; and for the well-being of all people.
Pray for justice and peace.

Silence

I ask your prayers for the poor, the sick, the hungry, the oppressed, and those in prison.
Pray for those in any need or trouble.

Please select one or two of the names from the following parish prayer list to pray aloud:

Silence
I ask your prayers for all who seek God, or a deeper knowledge of him.
Pray that they may find and be found by him.

Silence

I ask your prayers for the departed.
Pray for those who have died.

Silence

The Celebrant adds a concluding Collect.

Confession & Absolution

Officiant
Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

• Silence may be kept.

Officiant and People
Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Officiant
Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

The Peace

Officiant The peace of the Lord be always with you.
People And also with you.

THE LITURGY of THE TABLE

Offertory

Officiant: All things come of Thee, O Lord
People: And of Thine own have we given Thee.

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

Eucharistic Prayer C

Officiant: The Lord be with you.
People: And also with you.
Officiant: Lift up your hearts.
People: We lift them to the Lord.
Officiant: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People: It is right to give him thanks and praise.

God of all power, Ruler of the Universe, you are worthy of glory and praise.
Glory to you for ever and ever.

At your command all things came to be: the vast expanse of interstellar space, galaxies, suns, the planets in their courses, and this fragile earth, our island home.
By your will they were created and have their being.

From the primal elements you brought forth the human race, and blessed us with memory, reason, and skill. You made us the rulers of creation. But we turned against you, and betrayed your trust; and we turned against one another.
Have mercy, Lord, for we are sinners in your sight.

Again and again, you called us to return. Through prophets and sages you revealed your righteous Law. And in the fullness of time you sent your only Son, born of a woman, to fulfill your Law, to open for us the way of freedom and peace.
By his blood, he reconciled us. By his wounds, we are healed.
And therefore we praise you, joining with the heavenly chorus, with prophets, apostles, and martyrs, and with all those in every generation who have looked to you in hope, to proclaim with them your glory, in their unending hymn:

SANCTUS ET BENEDICTUS  S-124  New Plainsong | David Hurd

Officiant and People sing

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

The Officiant continues

And so, Father, we who have been redeemed by him, and made a new people by water and the Spirit, now bring before you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ our Lord.

On the night he was betrayed he took bread, said the blessing, broke the bread, and gave it to his friends, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me." After supper, he took the cup of wine, gave thanks, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Remembering now his work of redemption, and offering to you this sacrifice of thanksgiving,

We celebrate his death and resurrection, as we await the day of his coming.
Lord God of our Fathers: God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ: Open our eyes to see your hand at work in the world about us. Deliver us from the presumption of coming to this Table for solace only, and not for strength; for pardon only, and not for renewal. Let the grace of this Holy Communion make us one body, one spirit in Christ, that we may worthily serve the world in his name.
Risen Lord, be known to us in the breaking of the Bread.

Accept these prayers and praises, Father, through Jesus Christ our great High Priest, to whom, with you and the Holy Spirit, your Church gives honor, glory, and worship, from generation to generation. AMEN.

The Officiant continues

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever.
Amen.

---

The Officiant breaks the consecrated Bread.

---

* A period of silence is kept.

---

Officiant
Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us.
People
Therefore let us keep the feast.
AGNUS DEI

Officiant and People sing

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world: have mercy on us. Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world: have mercy on us. Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world: grant us peace.

The Officiant says
The Gifts of God for the People of God.

After Communion, the Officiant says
Let us pray.

Officiant and People
Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood. Send us now into the world in peace, and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Blessing

Celebrant The blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be upon you and remain with you for ever.

People Amen.
1 Praise to the Lord, the Almighty, the King of creation
2 Praise to the Lord; over all things he glorious
3 Praise to the Lord, who doth prosper thy way and defend thee!
4 Praise to the Lord! O let all that is in me adore him! All that hath life and breath come now with thanks and praise!

O my soul, praise him, for he is thy health and salvation; join the great throng, pearly, saints he sustaineth. Hast thou not seen how all thou ever attend thee; ponder anew what the Almighty doth? Let theamen sound from his Organ, and song, sounding in glad adoration. Need¬est hath been granted in what he ordaineth? Might¬y can do, who with his love doth befriend thee. People again; gladly for ever adore him.

NEWS FROM BISHOP LEE

Suspension of In-Person Worship to Extend Beyond Easter
Recorded services with Bishop Lee will be available

Bishop Jeff Lee announced last week that the suspension of in-person worship in the diocese would extend beyond Holy Week and Easter.

"While I never thought I would find myself canceling the services at the heart of our liturgical year, I do so now because we must do everything we can to impede the spread of the COVID-19 pandemic," Lee said. "Jesus commands us to love our neighbor, and sometimes we must do that by fasting from the company of the people we love and the services that bring us peace and joy."

The bishop has encouraged congregations to explore online worship. In addition, he will preach in liturgies for this Sunday, Holy Week and Easter Day that will be prerecorded at St. James Cathedral and made available online. Additional details will be available this week.

Lee's announcement follows Presiding Bishop Michael Curry's March 17 request that in-person public worship, including Holy Week and Easter services, be suspended.

In a letter to the diocese on March 12, the bishop suspended in-person worship meetings and events across the diocese until further notice. Some of these meetings will be conducted online. Consult the diocesan calendar for details.

WHY IS THE CENSUS IMPORTANT?

Approximately 168,682 residents have fled Illinois over the past five years, according to the U.S. Census Bureau. This means we have already lost one seat in the House of Representatives. If we do not count everyone remaining in our population, we are at risk of losing a second seat.

In the next decade, lawmakers, business owners, and many others will use census data to make critical decisions.

Census results will show where communities need new schools, new clinics, new roads, and more services for families, older adults, and children. More than $675 billion in federal funds will be distributed each year to support vital programs in states and communities across the country. For more information, visit the 2020 Census website.
